

HEALTHCON Regional 2022 DENVER

Area Points of Interest

Denver Union Station

1701 Wynkoop, Denver, CO 80202 | 303-592-6712 | <https://unionstationindenver.com/about/>

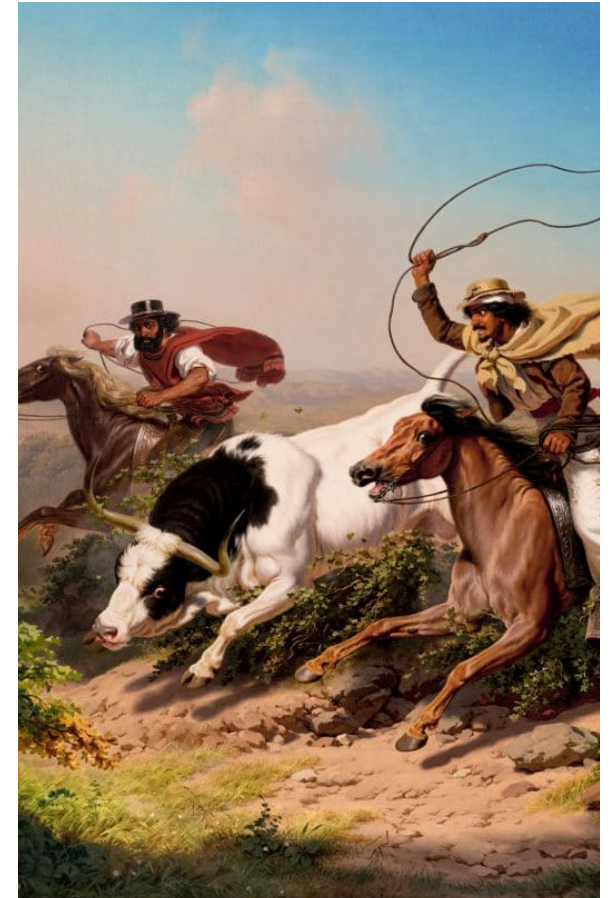

Built in the late 1800's, it was the largest building in the West. This historic landmark was a bustling hub for westward train travel. Considered the crown jewel of the city, Denver Union Station is now home to world-class dining and boutique shops.

American Museum of Western Art

1727 Tremont Place, Denver, CO 80202 | 303-293-2000 | <https://anschutzcollection.org/about-us>

Explore this collection with 300 paintings taking you through a journey on the history of the American West. The museum is housed in the historic, Navarre Building – a Victorian era charmer right in the heart of downtown Denver.

Larimer Square

1430 Larimer Street, Denver, CO 80202 | 303-534-2367 | <https://www.larimersquare.com/about>

Larimer Street was Denver's first city block and commercial district. It also housed its first residence and first city hall. Now featuring up-scale dining establishments, shopping, and nightlife entertainment like Comedy Works and Corridor44 — there's something for everyone to explore and enjoy.

Dark Side of Denver Ghost Tours

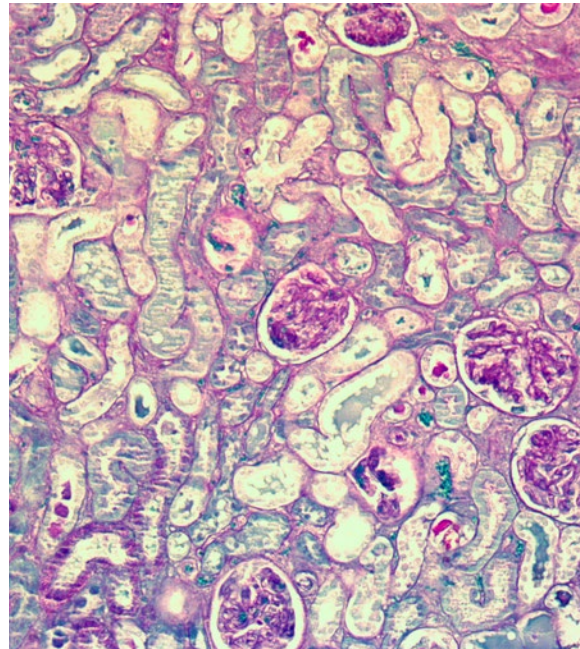

1701 Wynkoop Street, Denver, CO 80202 | 720-594-4678 | <https://darksideofdenver.com/>

Take a walking tour into Denver's ghostly past — a fun and unique way to explore the city in some of its oldest and most haunted buildings.

Denver Museum of Nature & Science

2001 Colorado Blvd., Denver, CO 80205 | 303-370-6000 | <https://www.dmns.org/>

Wander through these incredible exhibits and explore everything from dinosaur fossils to outer space. The Denver Museum of Nature & Science is a great way to let your imagination get carried away.

Arts District Food Tour

Il Posto - 2601 Larimer Street, Denver, CO 80205 | 303-997-2210 |

<https://www.denver.org/event/arts-district-food-tour/65632/>

Staying a little longer in the Denver area? Every Saturday the neighborhood of RiNo opens a three-hour walking food tour boasting some of the best dishes the district offers, including some award-winning local restaurants. Meet up with your travel guide and indulge your senses with the excellent food and incredible murals that cover the streets and alleys of RiNo.

